“Hope of Recovery from the Great East Japan Earthquake”

December 2012

On December 3rd, 2012, the Japanese film show “Hope of Recovery from the Great East Japan Earthquake” was organized at the Japan Information and Culture Center, Consulate-General of Japan at Karachi. Mr. Akira Ouchi, Consul- General of Japan at Karachi inaugurated this event and expressed gratitude and appreciation to Pakistani people who showed solidarity and support to the disaster-affected Japanese. Japan felt ‘Kizuna (bond of friendship) with the international society including Pakistani people in particular for their assistance.

He also said that the affected area of Japan has already recovered from the disaster and the reconstruction is well on the way. The Japanese film show was organized for the purpose of showing ‘Genki na Nippon (Vigorous Japan)’ to Pakistani people to show that Japan is recovering from the disaster in a spirit of solidarity and never giving up.

The Japanese film show will last from December 3rd to 7th. Documentary films on recovery of Japan and drama films, which depict how Japanese people in the difficult situation strengthen ties with people to overcome it, will be shown each day. The film show concludes the series of events to commemorate the 60th year of the diplomatic relations between Pakistan and Japan.
