

Press Release

“60 Years of Committed Friendship” Lecture by Japanese Consul General at Hamdard University

Karachi, Aug 29: Mr. Masaharu Sato, the Consul-General of Japan, delivered a lecture to the students of Hamdard University here on Wednesday. The lecture took place at the auditorium of Hamdard University.

This lecture was held as part of the 60th anniversary celebrations of diplomatic relations between Pakistan and Japan and was co-organized by Hamdard University and the Consulate-General of Japan at Karachi. In his lecture, Mr. Masaharu Sato explained the overall, economic, future foresight and many other aspects of the relationship between Pakistan and Japan.

He also encouraged the students referring to the virtues that are really important in their life such as discipline, sincerity, punctuality and modesty.

There was a question and answer session after the lecture and the students eagerly put forward their questions to the Consul General to which he replied with keen interest.

Mrs. Sadia Rashid, Chancellor of Hamdard University and President of Pakistan-Japan Cultural Association, Sindh (PJCA) was also present at the occasion.

