

Press Release

20th January, 2012

Japanese Calendar Exhibition 2012

The inauguration ceremony of “Japanese Calendar Exhibition 2012” was held at the Japan Cultural Centre of the Consulate General of Japan, Karachi in collaboration with Pakistan Japan Cultural Association, Sindh (PJCA) and Pakistan Japan Business Forum (PJBF).

Mr. Masaharu Sato, Consul General of Japan said that this exhibition is the first cultural event of this memorial year, 2012, which marks the 60th anniversary of diplomatic relations between Japan and Pakistan. He said Japanese calendars are good messengers to introduce many aspects of Japan, and the calendars show sophisticated printing technology of Japan as well. In his inaugural speech, the Consul General informed about “Japan Fest” which will be held in March in cooperation with many Japanese culture-related organizations in Karachi, at the Arts Council of Pakistan.

“Japanese Calendar Exhibition 2012” will continue until 26th January at the Japan Cultural Centre, Karachi.